Further information

About me
I am capable of starting test projects or joining to existing one to participate in the maintenance.

I wrote autotests on SWIFT for iOS and tVOS testing, Typescript for API and web-UI testing, on Python - for API and web-UI testing.

I can help team in front-end development. Have an experience in VUE 3
My GitHub account - https://github.com/filok94

I'm in love with history: from antiquity to the Middle Ages, I play football as a goalkeeper.
I like to learn and apply new things: thus, I have already participated in the development, wrote applications for the front-end and back-end.
I study English.
